

SPECULATION NOW RIFE CONCERNING DATE OF SESSION OF LEGISLATORS

Kilby Requests Congressional Delegation to Give Him
Their Opinions

BELIEVED SOLONS WILL MEET LATE IN SUMMER

Governor Will Postpone Meeting
as Long as He Possibly Can.

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily.)

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 2.—Gossip about the probability of an extra session of the Alabama legislature primarily for the re-submission of the highway bond issue turned to speculation about the definite date of the session today when it became known that Governor Kilby had advised the Alabama delegation in congress to present to him without unnecessary delay the matters which they desire to have included in the call and that members of the delegation instantly urged him to include the Mobile port amendment in his call.

Up to this time no one had any definite information about the extra session, but it had been looked upon in some quarters as a certainty following the decision of the supreme court which invalidated the twenty-five million dollar bond issue. The governor's letter to the congressional delegation is accepted as the most positive information yet made public about the session.

Insofar as is known, Governor Kilby has made no definite statement about the extra session. He has informed various persons that he would like to avoid it if possible, but does not see how it can be done as the loss of the federal appropriation for public roads in Alabama could not be compensated for by the saving of a few thousand dollars which would be spent during the extra session.

Governor Kilby will postpone the extra session as long as possible in order that the farmer members may complete their work on the farms, but it is probable that a call will have been issued or the announcement of the coming session made before the end of June. The session will come the latter part of July or the early part of August, according to indications.

Nobody knows what will be included in the call, but a majority who have discussed the matter at the capitol believe the governor will include the Mobile port amendment, the highway bond amendment and the soldier poll tax amendment in line with its decision on the highway bond amendment.

Lynne Sees Governor.

S. A. Lynne of Decatur, speaker of the house of representatives held a conference with Governor Kilby at the capitol yesterday. He came to Montgomery for the purpose of submitting to the court of appeals a case brought up from the courts of Morgan county, but took the occasion to discuss affairs with the chief executive.

Mr. Lynne would not indicate whether or not he believes an extra session will be called by the governor during the next few weeks for the purpose of again submitting to the voters the twenty-five million dollar highway bond issue, but expressed the opinion that if the governor does decide to call the session the law-makers will be here only a few days and will adjourn as soon as the urgent matters have been handled. Mr. Lynne said he believed the people desire the end of the session, if one is necessary, the moment the most important bills have been enacted.

Greene Re-elected.
J. H. Greene of Opelika, who became superintendent of the Alabama Sunday School Association a year ago as the successor of Leon C. Palmer, who moved to another state, was re-elected for another term by the executive committee of the association, according to announcement today.

The executive committee also elected a budget committee which will control the expenditures of the association in the future.

Roads Projected.

Great efforts are being made by the state highway department now to prepare project agreement for road

New Economic Program Given by Wirth Today

(International News Service)
BERLIN, June 2.—Chancellor Wirth's new economic program for Germany was bitterly attacked today by the reactionary faction of the German press.

The most drastic domestic program under which any modern nation has ever lived was spread out before the German people today to set the country in order and to meet the indemnity due the allies.

Chancellor Wirth, who addressed the reichstag Wednesday announcing the new financial policy summed up Germany's needs in the following four phrases:
Intensive industry, intensive agriculture, maximum efficiency and unprecedented economy.
Germany will not attempt to float any loans but will pay as she goes.

"PLAIN TALK" TO YOUNG OFFICERS

(International News Service)
ANNAPOLIS, MD., June 2.—While President Harding and many high ranking officers of the navy looked on approvingly, Secretary of the navy Edwin Denby indulged in some "plain talk" today to the 260 members of the graduating class of the naval academy who received their diplomas from the hands of the president in Dahlgreen hall today.

In speaking from the standpoint of one who has been both an enlisted man and officer in the navy and in the marine corps, Secretary Denby cautioned the young officers against the foolish vanity of rank and advised them the smiles of their men are better than any decoration.

Decisions of Supreme Court

The Supreme court today affirmed the case of R. S. Long et al, versus Malinda Brown et al, from Morgan Circuit court.

BARN DAMAGED

A barn at the home of Mrs. Jarvis, corner Moulton street and Fourth avenue, W., was slightly damaged by fire early this afternoon.

LOCAL CRAFTS OF SHOPS DISCUSS THE WAGE REDUCTIONS ORDERED BY BOARD

E. G. Cherry is Elected President of the Crafts at Regular Meeting

W. H. WILSON IS MADE GENERAL CHAIRMAN

Local Man Will be Blacksmith's Head for the Entire System

The Louisville and Nashville crafts, held their regular meeting last night in Carmen's Hall, on Second Avenue. Owing to the election of W. H. Wilson, formerly president of the shop crafts, as general chairman of the Boiler Makers, of the entire system, election was held which resulted in E. G. Cherry, former vice-chairman of the federation being elected president, R. G. Sandusky, vice-President, and E. F. Wilson, secretary.

The several crafts of the shop were represented, and matters directly concerning their contracts with the Railroad were taken up. A discussion of general interest followed the reading of the following:

A great meeting of the representatives of all the railway unions affected by the wage cut decision, to be held in Chicago June 27 and 28, was announced here today. At that meeting the unions will give their answer to the $400,000,000 wage cut and in all probability the question of strike or work will be decided there.

Ballots are being prepared and will be sent out immediately to the 500,000 members of the six organizations of railroad shop workers, to determine whether they are willing to accept the wage reductions ordered by the labor board. If it is shown that the members are opposed to acceptance of the reductions, then a strike vote will be taken.

Many labor leaders here today expressed disapproval of a plan to take court action to forestall the wage reductions.

Interest centered especially in the proposed wage reduction as announced by the National Wage Board. It was pointed out, that while it was thought the Louisville and Nashville railroad had not yet applied to the board for a reduction in wages, that such would be the case in all probability. As the wage board was reported to have ruled, that in case railroads that have not yet asked reductions, but do ask for them are to receive the same answer, as the roads previously applying, it was concluded that the same cuts would be recommended for the Louisville and Nashville as were published for other roads by the Wage Board. It was shown, that mechanics, and helpers, would be recommended to receive the same reductions, and that all the local craftsmen, would share about alike in the recommendations for readjustments of wages.

Near the close of the meeting, a committee was appointed composed of H. C. Huchison, J. E. Blair, and E. F. Wilson, to draft a set of bylaws for the organization. The carpenters union also met in Carmen's Hall last night.

FEDERAL RESERVES LOWERS BANK RATE

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 2.—A movement for a general lowering of bank rates will be instituted by the Federal reserve bank during the summer months, it was officially announced today.

Easier money conditions make it advisable for lower bank rates, treasury officials stated today. Secretary of the treasury Mellon, discussing the credit situation today, declared that gradual improvement is being shown.

Penalizing rates, for banks which are forced to draw upon the reserve banks for more than their allotment, are to be removed, it was also announced. This is in line with announcement from the white house that western and southern producers because the weight of these penalizing rates have been passed on to the borrower by the banks.

FIRST CLUB RALLY OF PRESENT YEAR HELD SATURDAY AT HARTSELLE SCHOOL

Attendance of All Members is Urged by County Agent W. G. Johnson

PARADE WILL BE ONE OF FEATURES OF MEETING

Addresses Will be Delivered by Number of Prominent Residents

The first rally of the agricultural clubs of Morgan county this year will be held at the city schools of Hartselle at 10 a. m. Saturday morning, W. G. Johnson, county agent announced this morning.

Every club member and every member of the advisory councils of the agricultural clubs were urged to be present by Mr. Johnson.

The visitors will assemble at the city schools at 10 o'clock promptly and a parade will be one of the features of the gathering. The parade will return to the school at 10:30 o'clock when an address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor A. P. Howell, of Hartselle. The response will be made by Randolph Ryan. At 10:45 o'clock the club members will be addressed by Prof. E. L. Hayes, county superintendent of education, Captain R. A. Burleson, J. T. High and others. At noon dinner will be served to the visitors.

An athletic program will begin promptly at one o'clock, to be followed by club stunts. At two o'clock there will be a free entertainment and club "specials." The conference will adjourn at 4 o'clock.

"I want to urge the attendance of every club member and every person who contemplates joining one of the agricultural clubs," Mr. Johnson stated. "Particularly do I urge the members of the calf clubs to be present as we expect to go thoroughly into that phase of farm endeavor."

The dinner and all other features of the entertainment will be free and a cordial invitation was extended to all residents of the county to be present.

CIVIC BANQUET AT C. OF C. ON FRIDAY NIGHT, BIG CROWD

Many active plans for city building will be outlined at a banquet of the Albany chapter of commerce Friday night at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by President W. W. Rahm. A musical program will be rendered and a number of addresses will be delivered by well known speakers.

The banquet will be in the nature of a get-together meeting for the purpose of lining the citizenship solidly behind the civic program. Fried chicken will provide the principal item on the menu for the banquet and the advance sale of tickets indicate a record attendance.

Ladies were given a cordial invitation to attend.

BIGGEST SHIPMENT PIANOS RECEIVED

The largest shipment ever brought here of pianos has been received by Kelley & Hawk, who are hauling them to their place of business today and placing them in position, where prospective buyers will have full opportunity to inspect and test. Kelley & Hawk have an instrument in which they take great pride.

Funeral Today for Beloved Woman

Funeral services were held this afternoon at one o'clock for Harriet W. Dekins, who died last night at 7:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Bradshaw, Austinville. Services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Spearman from the residence. The body was taken to South Pittsburg, Tenn., this afternoon for interment.

SELLS ALMOST IN HALL OF FAME BY MASTERLY GAME TWINS WIN 5 TO 1

Making Debut, New Twirler Lets Triplets Down With But Two Hits

SHOWER OF BASE HITS IS LOT OF TROTTER

Twins Drive Four Runs Across in the Very First Inning

Bob Higgins, big league scout, said Bill Sells would go good in this league. Apparently Bob was right. At least the Triplets are willing to concede he was, for Bill, making his debut almost pitched himself into the hall of fame yesterday afternoon by letting the Tri-Cities crew down with two measly bingles, one of them a scratch at that. The Twins consequently had little difficulty winning 5 to 1.

The Twins greeted Trotter with a bevy of base hits in the initial stanza and before he could retire the side, four had crossed the plate and with Sells going great guns, the game was safely stowed away.

Lewis opened the Twin's half of the inning by beating out a hit to Flack. Flack tried to make a lightning play at first and heaved the ball away, Lewis taking second. McDuff smashed one straight at Flack and the Sheffield field leader made his second miscue, Lewis taking third.

Eaks drove a safety to left, counting Lewis and McDuff went to third, Eaks taking second on the throw in. McClain singled to center and McDuff and Eaks scored, McClain taking second on the throw to the plate. Carter fouled out to Nathan, but Lauderdale hit to left for one base and McClain counted, Lauderdale going to second on the throw to the plate. The Twins were running the bases well, beating each throw.

Lauderdale was caught at third on Craddock's bouncer to short. Johnson singled to left and Craddock went to second, but Sells flew out to Tilton. The Twins batted entirely around.

Another was added by the locals in the fourth after two were out. Lewis beat out another hit to short, McDuff walked. Eaks got his second pinch blow to left and Lewis scampered across. McClain drove a long liner to right, but Elmo made a nice running catch and was given a hand by the stands.

The game yesterday was the fastest of the season, being played in one hour and 15 minutes. The visitors failed to reach first base in the first three innings and went out in order in all but two innings. In the sixth they filled the bases with none out, but Sells escaped without serious injury, only one run scoring.

Lewis almost made a home run in the second when he drove the ball

HEALTH MEET AT DANVILLE FRIDAY

People of the Danville section will enjoy a real health rally Friday afternoon and night. In addition to members of the county health unit, invitations have been extended to Dr. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education, to attend and deliver an address. Other speakers will include Dr. Austin, county health officer and Prof. Hayes, county superintendent of education.

Meeting Tonight to Discuss Health

A meeting will be held at the Albany city hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight to discuss health questions relating to the sewerage conditions in the area of the Third ward outside of sewerage connection areas, Dr. B. F. Austin announced.

Kilby Discusses Wages of Miners With the Owners

(International News Service)
BIRMINGHAM, June 2.—Governor Thomas E. Kilby left this city early this morning with a number of coal mine operators for Montgomery, where he will take up the matter of alleged cuts in the wages of coal miners with the operators this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

In a statement Governor Kilby said that a cut in wages of miners was clearly a breach of his settlement of the miners strike last February, unless that cut was by the consent of the miners. The statement that "a special session of the legislature has not been determined upon" was also made by the governor.

Kilby scored the operators for alleged profiteering in coal prices last year and declared that the people "will not stand for it" this year.

ADMINISTRATION TO OPPOSE ATTEMPTS TO RECOVER SHIPS

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The administration will instantly and decidedly oppose any attempt on the part of the allied reparations commission to lay claim to the German shipping which was taken over by the United States in American ports when we entered the war.

This was made plain in official quarters today in relation to reports cabled from Paris that the reparations commission probably will take up the question of whether the United States should not be called upon to pay for these seized German ships.

The German shipping seized in American ports totalled approximately 300,000 tons. Included among the ships taken were some of the finest of the German merchant service. When President Wilson was in Paris he discussed the disposition of these ships with Lloyd George and a tentative understanding was reached to the effect that the United States would check off her shipping losses in the war against this German tonnage and if there was any appreciable difference it would be made up to the allied shipping pool.

The fact that this understanding was never ratified by the European councils has no bearing on the matter, is the view of administration leaders.

PERFECT RECORD BY TWO TRAINS

Crews of trains Numbers 1 and 4, L. & N. R. R., are receiving congratulations over the system because of the record they have made for the past 60 days. Number 1 arriving at New Orleans and No 4 arriving at Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati, have been "on time" at their points of destination every run in the past 60 days.

The Louisville and Nashville today announced that beginning June 5, Number 4, leaving Decatur at 11:05 and arriving in Cincinnati at 11:40 a. m., will make direct connection on diverging lines for Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, New York and Boston.

Further announcement was made that special rates have been authorized for Shriners and their families attending the Shrine celebration in Birmingham on June 6. Certificates obtainable from T. A. Bowles here entitle the holder a fare and one half for the trip to the Magic City.

Miss Johnson Died Very Suddenly

Miss Martha Johnson, aged 75 years, died suddenly last night at her residence near Trinity. She was born in this county and had resided the greater part of her life here. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment being made in the Trinity mountain graveyard. Miss Johnson was beloved by a wide circle of friends.

BUSINESS NORMAL IN TULSA AFTER A NIGHT OF QUIET; MILITARY RULES

Soldiers Pace Streets and Comparative Calm Prevades the City

CHECK UP BEING MADE OF THE LIST OF DEATH

May Pitch Tents in "Little Africa" to House the Negroes

(International News Service)
TULSA, OKLA., June 2.—Business was resumed as usual in Tulsa today following a night of quiet. The militia still paced the streets and martial law continued in effect, but there was no disorder and stores and business places, which were barred and bolted yesterday, were opened and people appeared on the streets as though Tulsa's day of terror had never happened.

A check up this morning showed ten white men to be dead and 6 of the 35 wounded in hospitals in a critical condition. The bodies of 15 negroes were in morgues. Other bodies were being brought to the morgues this morning from the ruins of the black belt where they had laid "untouched since yesterday morning. Over 70 wounded negroes are reported in hospitals today and more than 20 were not expected to live 24 hours.

The troops thrown around the desolate region which was once "Little Africa," perhaps the most concentrated and wealthy negro settlement in the Southwest, before it was leveled to the ground Wednesday morning by a fire started by the white invaders, continued to do picket duty today.

Adjutant General Barrett today considered the advisability of pitching tents in the negro districts as soon as the wreckage can be cleared up, to serve as temporary homes for the negroes.

More than 3,000 of these negroes taken prisoner yesterday were being fed by relief agencies headed by the Red Cross today.

Dick Rowland, the negro youth whose arrest was the cause of the outbreak was not to be arranged today, it was stated by police officials. Rowland, during the rioting, was spirited away to safety and his place of confinement was a secret today.

Rowland does not face any charges, but was being held by city police for investigation on complaint of Mrs. Sarah Paige, a white elevator operator, who said Rowland attempted to attack her.

Engineer Hurt in Train Wreck

MOBILE, ALA., June 2.—In a collision between Louisville and Nashville train Number 2 and a freight train, in siding, at Theodore, Ala., about midnight last night, Engineer John Winnow, of the passenger, was painfully injured and traffic on the road was delayed about three hours. When the passenger train collided with the caboose jumped from the engineer Winnow jumped from the train, it was stated. No passengers were injured.

Early Action Due on Soldier Bonus

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 2.—Congress may be expected to take effective action soon on the several proposals for aiding ex-service men, Senator Penrose, Republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the senate finance committee, stated today. In appointing a subcommittee to determine the most practical legislative methods of ex-service men's aid, Senator Penrose's purpose is to pave the way for early action by the senate on the so-called "soldier bonus bill," he said.

Capital of Farm Loan Banks Raised

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Senate today passed an amendment to the Federal farm loan act, increasing the capitalization of farm loan banks from $5,000,000 to $50,000,000. The amendment was an emergency measure requested by the secretary of the treasury and is designed to relieve financial distress in the agricultural industry.

THE TRIUMPHS OF SCIENCE
HAVE COST HUMAN LIFE

The pathway of progress has ever been strewn with the dead, who have died as the servants of progress. This is strikingly true in the Scientific world, and especially so, in the science of air navigation. The disaster last Saturday afternoon in the state of Maryland, when the "Eagle," one of the most powerful machines made, was wrecked with all on board destroyed is a case in point. The question may well be asked is there any way for the aviator to "beat" the game against the powerful winds and elements?

The most hopeful thing and one that would seem to lead to an affirmative answer to the question is constitution and make up of the men, who direct the building and operation of the great air ships. Such men's minds do not dwell long upon the death and disaster such as befell the "Eagle," but they turn to an examination of its causes and toward ways and means of solving the difficulties continually arising. Already, a plan is being considered whereby aviators will receive a reliable chart of the heavens that will indicate the orbits, so to speak, of the great air currents in the higher altitudes.

General Mitchell has testified, that while the wind was comparatively mild at the earth's surface, that high up, the storm which wrecked the Eagle was of unprecedented violence. He said that the wrath of the storm god, was far beyond any of his wildest dreams. In the teeth of such a storm, he said, that any device as now constructed by men, would have crumpled up like an egg shell in the hand of a strong man, or perished just as a strong man would destroy a fly.

The conclusion seems to be gaining ground, that there is no limit, placed on the possible strength of the winds, but hope is held out that flying machines can be built so perfectly balanced, that they can glide through any storm unhurt. A French aviator, has said that the balancing of the "Eagle" was not perfect, and the scientists have already set about the task of producing a machine of perfect balance and adjustments.

The loss of life among flyers has been appalling. Seven persons went to death with the "Eagle," but it is doubtful, if flying has exacted any higher life toll, than many others of the great sciences, that are bringing the human race to a larger and fuller rulership over the forces of nature.

"JERSEY WEEK" SHOULD BE OBSERVED BY COUNTRY FARMERS

The custom of observing special weeks for special purposes has become a fixed one in this country, and it is a good plan, for it causes people to think of movements for community, state or National betterment to which they would not otherwise give thought. We have, for instance, clean-up week, forest preservation week, good roads week, library week and various other kinds of weeks, all for a good purpose and all worth observing. Locally we are called upon now to observe "Jersey Week," in behalf of better livestock for dairy herds and therefore better milk for home use.

In another column of today's Star, Mr. L. G. Prentice, county farm demonstration agent, tells of the purpose of "Jersey week" and emphasizes the need for improved dairy stock on Alabama farms. Mr. Prentice's article is enlightening and to farmers it possesses an especial value at this time. In his article Mr. Prentice announces that a Jersey association is to be formed in Calhoun, the purpose being to encourage the introduction of pure-bred stock for dairying. The movement is an excellent one.

There no longer is any question about the value of pure-bred stock. It has been abundantly demonstrated right here at home that fine stock for dairy herds pays much better than scrub stock. The yield of milk and butter is much greater with pure-blooded stock, the food value is very much greater and the cost of maintaining good, milk producing cows is little if any greater than for scrub stock.

Jersey week should be generally observed. It is in behalf of farm betterment and therefore is a worthy movement. It should encourage Calhoun dairy farmers to give more attention to improved dairy stock and in that way it will add to the value of the county's dairy products and give to the buying public an improved grade of milk and butter.—Anniston Star.

THIS JUMPY WORLD OF OURS

Anybody would think from the amount of talk let loose since the Silesian situation took an unfortunate turn of a few days ago that Europe was ready and eager to shut up shop and go to war again for another four years or so. Since Mr. Lloyd George said the action of the Polish insurgents in Upper Silesia was a violation of the treaty of Versailles, and since M. Briand said France would never consent to the insurgents being put down by German troops, the unanimous opinion seems to be (listen to the talk), that France and Britain have broken and are about to fly at each other. Such a jumpy world do we live in. It doesn't seem to matter to the jumpers that the French and British governments haven't the remotest intention of surrendering the position of advantage they hold in Europe. It doesn't matter that the French and British people haven't the remotest intention of surrendering their senses. Little considerations like those don't count when it becomes necessary to have a war sensation. A first class one can be produced, wrapped up and delivered on an instant's notice (order by telephone and save time). It would be amusing if it wasn't so mischievous. France and Britain fought a war side by side, made a peace together and have since been working together to make the peace lasting. It doesn't follow that they have always been in perfect agreement as to how that could be done. It isn't even necessary that they should always agree. Their purpose can be achieved while differing on details and even remaining apart on details. They weren't even united on details of a military policy during the war, and each may still think the other was wrong on some of those points. But they continued to fight side by side until the victory was won, and they will continue to work side by side now until the peace won by that victory is made stable.—Kansas City Star.

SUCCESSFUL WORK

Those who witnessed the presentation of "Experience," which appeared upon the boards a year or two ago, were, no doubt, much impressed with the personification of the work. Perhaps they will recall the lines: "I'm looking for huskies like you. I've got vacant places at the bottom of the ladder. I'm rough, but there isn't any harm in me."

It is not a difficult matter to make the application fit for it applies strongly to many young men who are looking for "positions" but who would avoid a "job." In this connection Work's description of his sons strikes sledge hammer blows of truth as follows:

"Maybe it's one of my sons you expected to meet—I have five of them. Now, there's my eldest son Job—he's rough and ready and willing. Then there's my twins, Position and Employment—nice boys, but a little unsteady sometimes. Then there's the pride of the family—Profession. I sent him to college and he made good. Sinicure is the black sheep of the family, and he travels around with a loafer by the name of graft."

Many graduating essays will declare that this motto is kept in mind success is certain. Anywhere there is no excellence without great labor and if thing that can be secured without labor is usually worthless. It is the cost that makes things dear. The young men or women who learn to do one thing well will always have a place in the world. It may be found that after having learned a trade or conquered a profession the work is not congenial and a change may be made but without having learned one line of work first there is nothing to depend upon.

Many successful business men take honest pride in the feeling that if fortune should go against them they can at least follow the work which they first learned. There is nothing that is really easy. It requires effort to accomplish anything. Natural ability is a help but application is of more importance. One may learn much quicker than another but in the end it is the same. Work brings contentment and contentment is happiness and natural wealth.—Montgomery Journal.

ALASKA AND THE SOUTH

A correspondent says there are 50,000 square mile of land in Alaska which could be made into productive farms. There are several thousand more square miles of land in the South which could be rendered more productive than it is.

Alaska is a fabled land for the fortune hunter. But whoever is interested in buying land for agricultural purposes would be foolish to go looking for bargains in Alaska when he could come South as well. In the first place Southern farms are nearer markets than any Alaskan farms ever will be. In the second place nothing ever will be done to modify the terrors of the Alaskan winter climate. There are no climatic terrors to be modified in the South. In the third place many varieties of fertile soil are purchasable at reasonable prices in the South. In the fourth place, Alaska is a wild country, thinly populated. In the South the new comer falls immediately into a wide circle of neighborly people and the blessings of a settled civilization.

The bargain hunter of good judgment would not think of going to Alaska instead of coming South—especially that important part of the South widely known as the State of Alabama.—Montgomery Advertiser.

The statistical report for the Tri-Cities Ball team was not very encouraging, except to the Twin Cities.

The Twins road the "Old Tricycles" to a fare-you-well. They begin the same sport in the Tri-Cities today.

Herr Bergdoll et al squealed like the swine they are when President Harding "pinched" all of Grover's property, on the ground that he is an alien enemy.

For Human sphinx, to a Paris Newspaper correspondent—that is Col. Ed House. Everybody knew he was going to say something at length, he was so long about it. Col. House is the one who announced that there was plenty of oil and gas for every body.

Snow fell in Montana Saturday, why not go over there for the summer.

The will of Chief Justice White contained just 51 words. It takes about 5100 words to express most people's will.

Mr. Wilson perhaps did not mean to speak for any body but himself, when he said apropos of Memorial day: "We shall not be able to enjoy the full pride of the day's recollections until we have made sure that the duties that grew out of the war have been fulfilled to the utmost."

Cheerful things to think of: The gasoline supply is sufficient; the paper mill strike may be arbitrated; the garment workers may return to work; Japan may give over yapping about Yap; the marine strike is nearing completion; the British coal strike is still going to be arbitrated, and Senator Borah's resolution for Naval disarmament for Us, Japan and England is receiving favorable consideration.

Ft. Wayne, Ind., Journal Gazette.
WATERLOO, Ind., June 16.—After reading the article by the manager of the Huntstown team in this morn-ing's Journal-Gazette, I can not let it pass unanswered because the article is intended to give a black eye to a club that does not deserve it.

Mr. McComb says the numpire was so bad that he would not mention many of his decisions that were against them.

And as for a game on a neutral ground with an unbiased umpire, Mr.
McComb can have a game for any Sunday after July 4, with the same players used last Sunday, if he wishes, but I would advise him to get some ball players instead. (Signed).
L. E. ROHM.

NOT OUD'N

"If you have any records you are tired of send them to the Salvation Army" urges the Louisville Herald.

But, supposin' they belong to the family next door.

The latest decree of fashion is that the parol must match the bathing suit. Woe be unto her who loses her para—well, anyhow isn't the weather
just too lovely?

Cynic suggests that the sixteen-year-old Princess who is having her first love affair doesn't know that it is going to develop into epidemic.

Some crabby old cynics claim that women are heartless. But observer says he knows differently. The way most of them dress now you can see their hearts beating.

OPTIMISTIC POME

For my blessings I am thankful.

THANKFUL

And, if I had a bankful
Of coin I'd buy a turkey
But I haven't got the means;
So I guess that I'll eschew
Let the wealthy guys go to it, and I'll be almighty grateful
For my plate of pork and beans.

Voice of People

Editor The Daily:

As Secretary of the Decatur Parent-Teachers Association I am pleased to render the following report, which bespeaks earnest work and splendid co-operation on the part of our membership.

Organization effected Feb. 23 meetings held bi-monthly and the final meeting for the school year held May 23rd.

Number of members enrolled at our first meeting; thirty, and our present enrollment; eighty-two.

Following are the donations made
to our organization:

City Council	$200.00
Community League	67.91
Sixth grade girls	1.32
Sixth grade boys	6.85

Total	276.08
Donations	$276.08
Dues paid	60.00
Earnings	260.58

Total receipts	606.65
Total disbursements	399.65
Balance on hand	206.01

Our disbursements represent splendid playground equipment purchased (some of which will not be installed until the opening of school in September.) First aid cabinets installed in bath buildings, preparations and equipment of one tennis-court, grading of ground for ball for the boys, and one splendid Lyceum number given.

U. S. MAY PUT BIG FLEET IN PACIFIC

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, June 2.—Reports that the question of maintaining a British fleet in the Pacific may be decided at the forthcoming session of the British imperial council, which opens in London in 15 days, have injected a new element into consideration by the Harding administration of the advisability of consolidating the major portion of the American fighting crafts in that ocean.

The problem of defending the empire, it was learned today, is high up on the list of those to be considered at the imperial conference and Australia, New Zealand and Canada are willing to co-operate, but are said to hold that a fleet of secondary importance should be maintained in the Pacific.

Aside from any question of possible conflict, suggestions of which are dismissed as ridiculous, it is asserted that the future commercial policy of the United States tends toward the south and west and it is argued that an imposing fleet in the Pacific would do much to maintain American prestige in that vicinity.

In 1886 the United States demanded that France withdraw her military forces from Mexico, which was immediately done.

Biliousness is a condition that breeds disease in the vital organs and ought to be corrected promptly.
Prickly Ash Bitters is a man's remedy.
It vitalizes the blood, drives out impurities in the bowels, makes you feel bright, strong and hearty. Price $1.25 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.—

A Sure Way to Keep Mouth Free from Deadly Germs

Science tells us that most contagious diseases are contracted through the mouth. Yet an amazing number of people take no steps whatever to keep their mouths from the millions of germs in the air. The safest precaution against disease is found in the daily use of an antiseptic mouth wash, such as Stero-A. A few drops of Stero-A in the mouth brush will not only keep the mouth cool, sweet and free from germs, but also serve as a mild dentifrice. Being a liquid between the teeth and reaching hidden spots which ordinary pastes and powders cannot reach, take chances on your health and highly recommended by many Drug Co.

Don't expect to get through a hot summer of hard work without a sick if you start with your system impurities. To avoid a breakdown in the busy season begin now Prickly Ash Bitters, the remedy. It will purify the blood, clean the bowels and put the system in healthy condition. Price $1.25 per bottle. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.

JUNIOR MUSIC STUDY CLUB HOSTESS

The recital given by Junior Music Study club for Ladies' Music Study club, and parents of the Juniors, Wednesday, June 1st, 3 o'clock at Chamber of Commerce rooms, was one of the most beautiful programs ever rendered in the Twin Cities. The rooms were simply but prettily decorated in cut flowers and ferns. The girls in their pretty organdie frocks came into the chorus of Springtime and sang with beautiful enthusiasm. Each number given showed much hard work and technique on the part of these young artists. After the interesting program, Miss Barnard in behalf of the club, extended thanks to Mrs. H. O. Troup for her untiring efforts and time devoted to rehearsals, stating that the success of the recital was due both to Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Troup. Late in the afternoon the members served punch.

The program in its entirety follows:

"Springtime"—Alfred Wooley—Chorus.

"Habanere", from Carmen—George Dizez—Myrtle Graves and Mildred Moebe.

"La Polka de la Reine"—J. Raff—Katherine Chunn.

"Meditation"—Morrison—Louise Neill.

"Madam Butterfly"—John Luther Long—Gladys Bernardi.

"By the Waters of Minnetonka"—Thurlock Lincum—Mrs. O. Z. Robertson.

"The Littlest Rebel"—Teple—Marjorie Pointer.

"Love Nest"—Harbach and Hirsch—Mary Daniell.

"Convent Bells"—Spindler—Nannie B. Chandler.

Hyden's Second Symphony—Katherine Chunn and Pauline Dunnavant.

Fantasia—Impromptu—Chopin—Daphne Graves.

"Gypsy Trail"—Galloway Warhurst—Chorus.

Accompanists: Lorine Henderson, Daphne Graves, Mrs. H. O. Troup.

Violin: Miss Alice Hatten.

Robert Gray, who now has a position in Albany, spent the week-end with his parents here. Attorney Melvin Hutson of Decatur was a visitor to Athens last week. Miss Clifford Sharp of Hartselle has been visiting Athens friends the past week. The season could have found no choicer spot in which to display its pastoral loveliness than the attractive country home of Mrs. Luke Pryor, Friday afternoon when she entertained at rook. Mrs. Jack Crenshaw of Birmingham was the inspiration of the hospitality. Sixteen guests participated in the games, which resulted in prizes being awarded Mrs. Nelson Cartwright for highest score and Mrs. Crenshaw as honoree. Brick cream, cakes and delicious home-made candies were served by little Misses Martha Patton Pryor, Rebecca Crenshaw, Douglas King and Masters Dick Pryor and David Peebles.—Limestone Democrat, Athens.

Mrs. Theobald Gamble of Des Moines, Iowa, with two children will arrive at the home of her brother, H. E. Hildredth in Decatur on Sunday morning to stay several weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Hine and Miss Madeline Dix of Athens were here today.

INFORMAL TEA PARTY FOR TWO JUNE BRIDES

Miss Carolyn Cartwright, and Miss Elise Phinizy, two lovely brides-elect of this month, were the inspiration for an informal tea party yesterday afternoon when Mrs. A. T. Hanson and Mrs. W. J. Garnett entertained at the home of the former. The reception suite of the pretty Hanson home was beautifully decorated for this event, an elaborate motif of pastel colors, being affectively adhered to throughout the living and dining rooms. In the living room in which the receiving line stood carried a simple decoration of blooming peonies and tall crystal vases of red dahlias. The floral ornamentation of the dining room was affected in sweet peas and feathery ferns. The table was covered by a handsome cluny cloth, and centered by a huge silver yellow tulipet basket holding dainty sweet peas. Further table decorations were tiny silver baskets of yellow mints, yellow shaded candle sticks, and yellow pansies.

The guests were welcomed on their arrival and served, refreshing fruit punch, on the porch which was elaborately decorated in a profusion of vari-colored nasturtiums by Mrs. Will Kimbrough, of Hartselle, and Miss Frances Beason both attired in dainty summer frocks who announced them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. A. T. Hanson, Mrs. W. J. Garnett, Miss Carolyn Cartwright, Miss Elise Phinizy and Miss Dorothy Mahon of Greenville, Alabama. Mrs. F. R. Beason and Miss Roa Cartwright invited the guests into the dining room, presided over by Mrs. E. J. Polhill, Mrs. J. H. McMath, Mrs. Paul Dix, Mrs. F. Brown assisting, where delicious sherbert sandwiches and mints were served. Mrs. Hanson received her guests in afternoon gown of tan canton crepe and wore a corsage of shaded pink sweet peas. Mrs. Garnett's gown was grey crepe. Her flowers were lavender sweet peas. Miss Cartwright was most attractive, in black lace, and black picture hat. Her corsage was American beauty rose buds Miss Phinizy wore dark blue organdie, and pretty hat to match. Her corsage was pastel shaded sweet-peas. Miss Mahon was handsome in a creation of turquoise silk and lace with harmonizing accessories. About 150 ladies called between the hours of 4 and 6.

ROOK PARTY

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Woodruff were hosts, at a pretty rook honoring Miss Bessie Woodruff of Moulton. The interesting game was played at four tables arranged in the living room which was artistically decorated in nasturtiums and other garden flowers. Rook and other games were enjoyed until a late hour when delicious ices were served on the lawn of the attractive Woodruff home.

Those enjoying this party were: Misses Lucy Byars, Florence Byars, Clara Randolph, Bessie Woodruff, Beatrice Woodruff Addie and Ora Byars, and Mrs. D. E. Phillips, Messrs C. E. Paries, Leonard Hanes, Edward King, George McVay, G. E. Miller, Dewey Scruggs, Richard Kelly, Burkete Nelson, Duncan Williams, Lemon Brown, R. Hanes and J. T. Held.

"Brazilian Grass."

This is a name incorrectly applied to a substance used in the manufacture of a cheap kind of hats known as Brazilian grass hats and also known as chip hats. It consists of strips of leaves of a palm, which are imported to Great Britain and elsewhere for this manufacture, chiefly from Cuba.

George Wythe, American Patriot. George Wythe, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence and a member of the constitutional convention, was born in Virginia in 1726. He was educated at William and Mary college. From the outbreak of the Revolution he was actively devoted to the patriot cause, and in 1775 sat in the continental congress. After the war he served as judge of the Virginia high court of chancery, and was for ten years professor of law at William and Mary college. He died in 1806.

Train Them for Happiness.

Every mother who pampers and flatters her little son is making unhappiness for him and his future wife. Every father who allows his little daughter to wheedle him until he is preparing her for an unfortunate marriage, says London Daily Mail. Such parental conduct is a serious menace to the future well being of the child. No man ever rediscovers the patient indulging mother in his wife. No woman ever realizes the usage of a too-doting father in her husband.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Medical reports show men are more subject to appendicitis although many sudden cases occur among women. It can be guarded against by preventing intestinal infection. The intestinal antiseptic, Adler-i-ka, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing all foul, decaying matter which might cause infection. It brings out matter you never thought was in your system and which may have been poisoning you for months. Adler-i-ka is EXCELLENT for gas on the stomach. Dillehay Bros., Drug Store.—Adv.

Validity of Poll Tax Exemption is Tested Before High Court Today

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily.)
MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 2.—The case involving the validity of the constitutional amendment exempting ex-service men from the payment of poll taxes until October 1, 1923, will be submitted to the Supreme court Thursday. It became known Wednesday that attorneys for the two sides have agreed that the case will be given to the court on briefs and that no oral arguments will be made unless an attorney for the American Legion appears to make an argument as an intervenor.

Ray Rushton and Marion Rushton of Montgomery and Senator R. B. Evins of Greensboro have volunteered to prepare a brief in support of the contention of the American Legion that the amendment is valid and this brief, by permission of the supreme court, will be filed after the case has been submitted. Marion Rushton today stated that the brief will be ready the latter part of the week. If Senator Evins can return to Montgomery Thursday he will make an oral argument in support of the amendment. Twenty thousand or more ex-service men are interested in the final decision of the court in this case. Scores are now holding elective and appointive offices in the state and if the amendment is held to be unconstitutional they will be ineligible for their positions.

Attorneys for the American Legion and the appellant, A. B. Hooper, Jr., a member of the jury commission of Marshall county, contend that the time has passed when the amendment may be attacked and that as the people of Alabama have accepted it as valid and hundreds and thousands of votes have been cast in elections by persons who otherwise were not eligible to vote the amendment has been accepted and cannot now be attacked.

W. L. Fox brought proceedings to oust Hooper from the position as a member of the jury commission on the ground that he did not pay a poll tax. Hooper, an ex-service man, was exempted from the payment of the tax if the amendment is valid. The Marshall circuit court issued an order of ouster against Hooper on the ground that the amendment is not valid, the late for the election on the amendment having been set by the governor instead of the legislature. In the bond issue case, the Supreme court held the amendment to be invalid because the constitution put the duty of calling the election on the legislature and that the legislature could not delegate its duty to the governor or any other person.

STINSON SHOTS WELL IN ATLANTA

Wooster Stinson, local shot, who startled the state by his phenomenal shooting in the Alabama tourney in Birmingham recently, continued his good work in Atlanta yesterday. He is competing with the Alabama team in the national tournament in the Georgia city.

Mr. Stinson had high score for the five members of the state team with 143 hits out of 150 shots. The competition in Atlanta is composed of some of the best talent in the nation and Mr. Stinson is expected to rank high in the individual honors.

construction work for submission to the federal government before July 1, the day on which the state's part of the federal funds must have been taken. The government has ruled that if project agreements are executed by July 1 the state will be given more time actually to match the federal fund dollar for dollar.

Project agreements have been delivered to the federal bureau of roads for the following work: Marshall county, seventeen miles between Gunterville to Etowah line, estimated cost $465,249; Talladega county, twenty-three mile road from Coosa river to Calhoun line, estimated cost $332,472; Dallas, twelve mile stretch of Mobile-Selma road, estimated cost $208,873; fourteen mile stretch of Jackson highway between Axis and Culvert, estimated cost $214,898; Cullman county, ten mile stretch to Morgan county line, estimated cost $298,505; Limestone county, fourteen miles from Athens to Elk river bridge, estimate cost not given.

Ask Amendment.
The impeachment case of John Strength, sheriff of Elmore county, which was tried by the Supreme court last week and is now under advisement, came to notice again Wednesday when Harwell G. Davis, attorney-general, and Horace G. Wilkinson, special prosecutor, filed with the court a motion to amend the information against Strength by adding the words "against the peace and dignity of the state of Alabama" at the end of each specification.

With the entering of this motion on the motion docket of the court, it became known that the attorney-general's department and Judge F. Loyd Tate, counsel for Strength, had prepared briefs for and against the contention that the words should have been placed at the end of the information as required by the constitution in all indictments for offenses against the laws of Alabama.

Judge Tate contends that the articles of impeachment are fatally defective because they do not conclude with the words prescribed by the constitution, while the state contends that they are not necessary. Briefs have been prepared and filed with the court and are now under consideration. The state pointed out that various other impeachment cases have not been dismissed although the words were not included and the articles of impeachment in the Strength case were framed from the articles in the case of Probate Judge Pratt of Bibb county, who was impeached and removed from office several years ago. Judge Tate, for Strength contends that the same rules governing indictments govern this case and that the state never properly submitted the complaint against the sheriff when it neglected to conclude the specifications with the words "against the peace and dignity of the state of Alabama." It is probably this latest development in the case will mean a delay in the final decision of the court.

Guard to Encamp
Official announcement was made by the state military department today that the Alabama Guard will go into the annual encampment at Camp McClellan, Anniston, August 7 and will remain until August 21. All units at the time of the camp will be called of the organization which are equipped into active service for instructions.

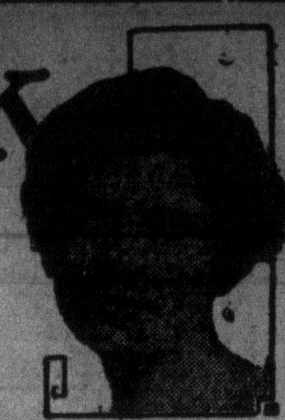

The national guard will establish its own co-operative canteen and will provide for amusements for the soldiers, including athletics and amusements. A detachment will be sent to Anniston in advance and will have the camp in readiness for the coming of the troops.

Crops Hurt.
The drouth is seriously interfering with the growing corn and cotton crops in North Alabama, according to M. C. Allgood, state commissioner of agriculture, who returned today from a trip through that agricultural section.

Corn and cotton have not had sufficient moisture for sometime and the commission fears the dry weather will have a serious effect on the final yield unless relief comes through rains soon.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

NEW YORK, June 2.—The destroyer fleet has been in port for a week or two lined up in the Hudson river for the joy and pride of all New York. One of the first things we heard about its coming was concerned with the delight of the gobs in being ashore in New York City. I don't know exactly what we expected them to do, but our vague mental pictures were certainly colored with the white lights, downtown restaurants, roof gardens, theaters and places to dance. And how, then, did they spend their hours ashore after a long cruise on the high with their steady days of training? Did they break down town to see the sights? Oh, no. They beat it straight for Central Park and rowed around the lake in those dinky boats under the hot sun.

The atmosphere of the big city didn't lighten this creatures capacity for devoted friendship, at least. When physicians took George Burroughs, an attendant at the Bronx zoo, to Fordham hospital his faithful raccoon companion, Buddy, went on a hunger strike. He finally broke the fast on being taken to the hospital to see his old friend, sharing the patient's soup, without an invitation. Now he is visiting Mr. Burroughs daily till the latter can go back to work.

One of the leading industries of the tenement house districts of Manhattan is pigeon-breeding. You can see them any evening in the poorer parts of the city, great flocks of pigeons flying in circles above the narrow streets. On the roofs of the dingy buildings are their masters—small boys, who have trained their flocks to come back to their wire cages at the waving of a tiny black flag on a bamboo pole. They raise most of the birds of course, for the markets, but the more ambitious of them are training "1921 homers" and take all the pride in their achievements that the owner of a stable of race horses knows.

Spring evidently had brought to the girl in the flower hat a wave of homesickness for the place where she was born and had spent most of her life. The nice young man sitting on the Riverside drive bench with her began to talk about his own home "up-state." "Don't," she interrupted. "I'm homesick enough right now as it is. Every time I look at the statue of Horace Greeley down near the City Hall, I want to run for the train." He looked puzzled. "Horace Greeley? Why he wasn't born in your part of the country." The girl laughed. "It's that plush chair, with fringe on it. We have a whole parlor set of furniture like that."

The passenger in the Bronx trolley car was raging in righteous indignation. She had asked the conductor to tell her when the car reached her street. And he had forgotten it. He apologized but it was no use. "You had no right to forget," she repeated. "Why don't you call out the streets?" Right here the conductor rose to what he considered to be the occasion.

How to Speak.
Lyman Beecher once visited a classroom at Andover academy when a professor of public speaking, who believed in formalized gesture, was expounding his theories. After the lecture Beecher was asked to address the students. He said: "Doctor Porter has told you to do this and that when you say so and so." Beecher went through several motions imitative of the professor, and continued: "But I say to you, young men, fill yourselves with your subject, and let nature caper."

Pure Gold Not Best for Coins.
The Tuscan sequin was the purest coin known in all history, being 999 parts of pure gold to one of alloy. The 8-ducet piece of Naples, another historic coin, was 990 parts of gold and four parts alloy, while the old Byzantine coins were next, 986 parts gold and 14 alloy. Pure coin is soft and loses rapidly by abrasion, and alloys are used to harden it.

French and American Roquefort.
The dairies of this country are making a Roquefort cheese which fully measures up to the French article. Then Frenchmen make it from goat's milk but the American is made from cow's milk.
